Program

The 2026 National Jamboree will feature amazing experiences for everyone. The program begins long before the National Jamboree and the memories will remain long after we leave the Summit Bechtel Reserve.

Adventure Areas

The National Jamboree showcases the broad range of activities available within Scouting! Those activities are conducted at adventure venues found at the Summit.

Adventure Valley is home to The Rocks (rock climbing), Low Gear (cross-country mountain biking), Alexander Eagle Flight (formerly known as Big Zip), and lake kayaking.

Aerial Sports Activity Weight Guidelines – The engineering and safety systems used by the Summit’s aerial sports activities required participants to meet certain weight guidelines in order to participate in climbing, rappelling, bouldering, canopy tour, challenge course, and zip-line activities. Participants in these activities must weigh between 50 pounds and 250 pounds, regardless of their height.

Thrasher Mountain is home to The Park and The Trax. The Park houses the Summit’s first-rate skateboarding facilities. At The Trax you will find a thrilling BMX Course.

The Bows and Barrels at the Jamboree will offer the widest variety of range and target activities ever. Shotguns, rifles, pistols, 3-D archery, and sporting arrows.

Aquatics activities will be located at the Summit’s man-made lakes. Goodrich Lake will be home to fishing, basic kayaking, paddle boarding, and an expanded Water Reality obstacle course. Tri Dave Lake will be home to advanced kayaking.

Summit Center adventure venues feature climbing, rappelling, mountain biking, skateboarding, canopy tour, and BMX activities.

Americana Extravaganza

Happy Birthday, U.S.A.! The Americana Extravaganza is our celebration of the United States of America’s 250th birthday, held the afternoon of July 26th (Sunday). One-part inspiring stage performances, one part lawn games, and one part engaging with civic leaders. Combine those three things together, and it is all parts fun!

Stage performances will include military bands and demonstrations and other performers on the Summit Stadium main stage. Lawn games include classics like horseshoes, washer toss, cornhole, and more, in the Summit Stadium.

Opportunities for civic engagement allows Scouts to engage with one of America’s longest traditions, that of democracy and self-governance. Scouts will be able to learn how they can make a difference in their neighborhood and beyond. The day will conclude with an evening fireworks display.

Be the Change

Leading a life of purpose and impact involves understanding the world's greatest needs. The Be the Change program lets Scouts explore major challenges facing our nation and the world. Delivered by a combination of volunteer experts and outside groups, the Be the Change program will focus on non-partisan issues (e.g., Sustainable Development Goals) that are significant in preventing humans from reaching their full potential or living in harmony with the Earth.

Scouts will also learn how others have inspired people to join them as they work to resolve the need they are most passionate about.

Challenge Base Camp

Challenge Base Camp is a hands-on experience of challenges, knives, regalia, cultures, sports and history through four programs in Basecamp A/B (specific location TBD).

Acme Pioneering uses wood, ropes and spars to make mallets and build merry-go-rounds, swings and Ferris wheels. Buckskin Village has blackpowder rifles, knife and tomahawk throwing, blacksmith forge, ropemaking, branding and other parts of traditional pioneer life.

The Titan Challenge will have you stay low, crawl fast, climb, swing, carry and flip over obstacles and inverted walls to collect the special National Jamboree Titan patch.

We are in discussions with external partners on additional programs, which we will announce as they get confirmed.

Hometown Celebration

Hometown Celebration is a special time at the National Jamboree (Thursday, July 23) when units, groups, and individuals will share and show off special elements of their hometown (or home area) cultures, heritages, histories, and more. There are no limits to the creativity Scouts will see as they visit different unit campsites: units will be telling stories, performing skits, sharing favorite hometown foods, clothing, or other items, teaching people how to make a hometown craft, playing games that highlight their community, and more! This event is a way to share with others what we each hold special and to help Scouts practice curiosity, inclusion, and belonging.

In addition to the programs hosted by each unit in their campsite, there will be fun games in each Subcamp designed for buddy pairs, groups, and possibly even large teams.

We know that Scouts come to the National Jamboree to meet people from all over the country – the Hometown Celebration is an opportunity for Scouts to make friends and learn about the breadth of cultures in our nation.

Elevate Your Well-Being

"Elevate Your Well-Being" aims to support the mental health and well-being of our Scouts, which has been increasingly challenged by the rise of handheld devices, social media habits, and the changes brought by the COVID-19 pandemic. The goal is to build resilience and promote healthy habits to help Scouts manage stress in a supportive environment, all while staying true to Scouting's core values.

At the "Peak Wellness" area in the AT&T Arena, Scouts will take part in various activities designed to boost their mental, emotional, and physical well-being. These activities may include mindfulness and meditation sessions, resilience education workshops, yoga, mental health awareness discussions, and social media literacy. Additionally, "Altitude Adjustment" areas, located at each of the medical clinics, will offer digital detox zones where Scouts can unplug from devices and engage in face-to-face interactions through conversation starters, card and board games, and collaborative art projects. These offerings aim to improve focus, emotional regulation, adaptability, social skills, and overall health.

Leadership Heights

Scouts attending the National Jamboree are encouraged to embark on a journey of self-discovery at Leadership Heights. The program includes a Crisis Simulation and a Speaker Series and provides more opportunities for Scouts to participate in experiences tailored to their unique leadership skill set. The latest information about the program is available at <https://leadershipheights.org/>.

Primary Reflection and Worship Services

A scout is reverent, and we are setting aside the morning of Sunday, July 26th, for reflection and worship. The National Jamboree chaplains, working with their faith groups, will coordinate worship services for that morning, with a schedule to be released by the start of the National Jamboree in the National Jamboree App. Faith groups whose primary worship day is not Sunday may have their primary service on another day.

Scouts who are not part of a faith group that has a worship service at the National Jamboree have the option of attending any one of the worship services or engaging in silent reflection. Sample reflection questions will be in the National Jamboree App.

Shows

A gathering of Scouting from across the nation is a reason to celebrate. The National Jamboree has four different show experiences for Scouts to enjoy:

Primary Stadium Shows: During the National Jamboree, there will be amazing, professional shows in the Summit Stadium that will entertain and enlighten with the theme of “Elevate” for all the 20,000 anticipated National Jamboree participants and visitors.

Base Camp Gatherings: On evenings during the National Jamboree, optional Base Camp gatherings will occur at a stage in one of the Basecamps, giving Scouts an opportunity to meet other Scouts from across the nation and even the world. Headliners for each of the shows, along with special events taking place as part of the shows, will be teased as the National Jamboree approaches.

Swim Classifications for Aquatics Program

For participants to participate in the unique aquatics activities at the Summit including the off-site River Rafting adventure, they will need to be classified for swimming prior to arrival at the National Jamboree. These classifications are non-swimmer, beginner, and swimmer. National Jamboree Scoutmasters, Advisors, and Skippers are responsible for swim classification checks prior to the National Jamboree and for reporting the abilities of each participant through the registration system.

The Summit Center and Basecamps A and B

The beating heart of the National Jamboree, the Summit Center is full of experiences that Scouts and visitors will remember for a lifetime. From stadium shows to challenging games, outdoor skill-building experiences, perspective-changing programs, merit badge exploration, and “preview versions” of adventure activities at Action Point and Boulder Cove, Scouts and visitors will experience challenges across topics both familiar and new, finding hobbies and pursuits that bring them joy.

Summit Center programs are offered by Scouting organizations, corporate and nonprofit partners, professional and hobby organizations, conservation groups, government agencies, the military, and educational groups – all experts in their field.

Young Adult Program

The National Jamboree will offer special program opportunities for young adults (aged 18-30), designed to help them develop their network, learn about opportunities to remain involved in Scouting, and to provide feedback to National Jamboree leadership and National Executive Board members. These activities will primarily occur in the evening to avoid conflict with daytime responsibilities and are open to unit leaders and staff members aged 18-30.
